

For a special mom

Jason Hartman, Idols winner

I'd love to book my mom into a day spa – just because she deserves it. It would be super to make her a family collage to remind her that we love her. Then I could also get her a dinner voucher at her favourite restaurant, because it's nice to get out once in a while. I'd top this off with a good book and her favourite perfume.

Top Billing's choice

A copy of Perfect Weekend (Art Publishers, recommended price R220, CNA and Exclusive Books.

Kelly Parkhurst, presenter

Choose a whole bunch of old family photos, convert them to black and white and have them printed on canvas. It's a nice difference from picture frames and you can build up a nice collection and mix-and-match between those and traditional photos – making for a sentimental as well as meaningful gift. Get mom a subscription to a magazine (preferably Top Billing!) – it's one of those gifts that keeps on giving throughout the year. A really nice beach bag with zips and hidden 'safe from sand and water' pouches is great. I've also just discovered the most amazing French manicure set from Yves Saint Laurent which would be a great gift too. There's a pen for the white tips so you just draw it on, while the pink is a brush-pen. It dries in less than a minute and is great to carry around with you in case of chips. Any woman would go crazy for it!

Cavendish's choice

PANDORA BEAD BRACELET Cherry On Top R7 500

