

GREEN TEAM ▲

Are you struggling to find the time to make it down to the driving range, let alone get in a full 18 holes? Bring the golf course home to ensure you at least keep your short game on course! The Southwest Nicklaus Design Greens programme delivers top-quality golf greens or synthetic lawns to your home or office garden. Design is the central focus and ensures these greens are built the 'Nicklaus' way to exact dimensions, shapes, elevations, slopes, pin locations and more. Southwest Greens is endorsed by Nicklaus Design and PGA professionals like Vijay Singh, Sergio Garcia, Retief Goosen and Tim Clark, who all enjoy the benefits of these premium synthetic, sand-filled golf greens. Call Andrew 082-554-2222, southwestgreens.co.za

COLOUR CODED ▲

Plascon has launched its 2010 Colour Forecast and it's very proudly based on the African continent. The four colour palettes are Northern Exotica, Southern Spectacle, Western Desert and Eastern Promise, each representing the natural, cultural and historical riches of their namesake geographical regions in Africa. Northern Exotica is awash with blues and whites inspired by the influences of Morocco and Tunisia, while Southern Spectacle is an eclectic mix of purples, mustards, greens and blues linked to the diversity of South Africa. Drawing on the colours of the Namib, Western Desert is a collection of rust, burnt umber and stone, while Eastern Promise is a warm palette of vibrant spice colours including reds, oranges and yellows, all drawn from the printed textiles of the tribes of Kenya. plascon.co.za

TIME OUT WITH THE STARS ▼

Perfect Weekend (Art Publishers) is a fascinating peek into the private lives of 52 of our favourite high-profile South African newsmakers, written by the expert hand of journalist Dominique Herman. It's the ideal treat for those who have always secretly wondered where Trevor Manuel takes his weekend walks, how Shaun Pollock passes the time since no longer playing cricket, or which theatres Pam Golding frequents. The photographs accompanying each story are just as entertaining. Photographer Brett Florens has captured Helen Zille cooking in her kitchen, Marc Lottering lazing in his pool and Jonathan Shapiro wrestling with his dog. Recommended selling price R220. artpublishers.co.za

COLOUR CODED ▲

Lava lamps are so last decade, so why not switch to a stylish new BAR210 lava-lamp-shaped Weather Light? Who needs lava when you can have informative weather forecasts, a radio-controlled clock and can measure the outside temperature simply by raising an eyelid. All this and more for just R798. oregonscientific.co.za

WORD ON THE STREETS ▼

The Street is a funky new-concept store in Greenside, Joburg, that offers a platform for talented young fashion designers and artists to put their products where the market is. The Street is a colourful display of artworks and clothing, promoting South African fashion in a contemporary environment. Ranges available include work by some of South Africa's most popular and sought-after street designers, from Suzanne Heynz, Lisa Jaffe, Two and David West to Tanya Demby. The Street's shoe offerings are equally as exciting, with styles by Swear, Pointer, Fiyeue, Macbeth and DVS... as well as imported Nooka watches. thestreetstore.blogspot.com